

NOT MY FRIENDS PLEDGE

Today, an average of 11 teens will die in a car wreck. And hundreds more will get banged up and hurt. It will probably be because of some dumb little mistake that was totally preventable.

BUT IT'S NOT GOING TO HAPPEN TO MY FRIENDS.

Today, I make this pledge: Not one of my friends will get hurt or die in a car crash. Not when I'm behind the wheel. And not when I'm a passenger in their car. I will drive for our freedom, for all the cool things we have planned, and for our futures. If I'm a passenger, I will defy peer pressure, I will speak up, and I will always have their back.

I, _____,

PLEDGE: NOT MY FRIENDS. NOT TODAY. NOT TOMORROW. NOT EVER.
